Administrator's Message

The year is off to a great start! Our students are busy participating in volleyball and cross country programs and they love when you come to watch and cheer them on! Many students have volunteered their time for Cross Walk, Take the Lead, Student Leadership Council, and lunchroom supervision. Their leadership is greatly appreciated by our staff.

It was great to see so many families at our Welcome Back Barbecue. We appreciate the opportunity to welcome you into our beautiful school to visit and share a meal with you. If you ever have ideas to make our school even better we welcome your input. Please stop by for a visit.

On September 24, our grade 1-8 students had the opportunity to experience a presentation called Peace Makers versus Peace Takers. Ask your child to tell you about it.

In the spirit of Truth and Reconciliation, we pledged our support of the "Every Child Matters Campaign" by wearing orange t-shirts and hosting a full school assembly.

We want to wish everyone a wonderful Thanksgiving and hope that you enjoy the long weekend with your families.

Mrs. Tomporowski and Mrs. Delisle
